Georgia's 2010 Small Business Persons of the Year Announced

Atlanta: The family team of Carol Aebersold, Chanda Bell and Christa Pitts, partners in the publishing firm, CCA and B, LLC, have been selected Georgia's 2010 Small Business Persons of the Year by the U.S. Small Business Administration.

The three entrepreneurs will receive their SBA awards from Terri Denison, SBA Georgia District Director, on May 5 at an Atlanta luncheon hosted by the Georgia Lenders Quality Circle, a group of active SBA lenders. The founders of CCA and B, an acronym for Creatively Classic Activities and Books, were nominated for their award by Drew Tonsmeire, Acting Director of the Georgia Small Business Development Center at Kennesaw State University.

CCA and B began in 2004 when Aebersold and her daughter Chanda decided to write a book about "the elf." This character formed the heart of a family tradition that began in the 1970's when Aebersold would explain to her daughters that Santa really knew who was naughty and who was nice. This little family tale would become the seed from which The Elf on the Shelf: A Christmas Tradition® would grow into a children's book and related products now widely popular here and abroad.

The Elf on the Shelf® product line is now featured in thousands of retail stores across the U.S. and Canada. As a company built on the enjoyment of children, CCA&B has provided over 600 community service hours per year and nearly $100,000 in product donations to organizations such as the Cobb Schools Foundation, Children's Cancer Research, Toys for Tots, and the Leukemia Society.
