Chanakya...

world. The organizers at CMA learnt more, not only about what to teach their young based on Chanakya's advice but also, all about a good fundraiser.

Training and rehearsing with onstage artists (some in multiple roles) and over 30 production artists, was done by the Assistant Director, Krishnaveni Kesavarapu and a team of 'stage directors' (Namrata Satuluru, Naveen Tyagi and Lakshmi Vedala). Krishnaveni opines: "this was an outstanding team to work with. Experienced artists like Swaroop Nyshadham, Udai Singh and many others added significant value to the rehearsals. I am simply amazed and thankful to all for this opportunity".

The conception and subsequent execution of Chanakya began in November 2008. Syam, who spearheaded this stupendously entertaining and thought-provoking multi-stage show, and his entire team, deserve kudos. Dedicated, CMA management team of Sudha and Arvind Malhotra, Sameer Pateria, Bhavana and KS Subramanian, K R Sundararaghavan, many teachers and volunteers also deserve to be complimented for their devotion, time and effort with the publicity, marketing and many other tedious facets of the show. Kudos also to Clayton County Performing Arts Center's team that made all the difference. Wow! What a performance? "Uttishta Bharata" indeed!!

A career IT executive, Syam is passionate about theater and credited with presenting successful plays in the US including: Ramayana (in Hindi), Shri Sai Darshan (in Hindi), 'Hara Vilaasam' and 'Sri Venkateswara Mahatyam', besides 20 others. Some of his shows have even traveled nationwide. With 'Chanakya, he has really raised the bar in theatrical productions. He has been bestowed with several Awards from TAMA, ATA, Hindu Temple of Atlanta, Riverdale, Vamsee Arts etc. for enriching the cultural and social life of our communities through his artistic talent.

*Viren Mayani played "Kaal" the historical-time narrator. To know all other pertinent details of "Chanakya" The play; please visit: www.chinmayamissionalpharetta.org.
